Chords With Lyrics

D Dmaj9 G A
D Dmaj9 G A

The absence of God will bring you comfort, baby and planning's for the poor so let's pretend that we're rich Bm x 2

and I'm not my body or what I choose to do with it

Folk singers sing songs for the working, baby

We're just recreation for all those doctors and those lawyers
Bm x 2
there's no relief for their heavy hearts

cause they'll be losing bodies tonight

D Dmaj9 G A
D D7M G A
D D

And Rob says maybe love won't let you down all of your failures are training grounds and just as your back's turned you'll be surprised he says

as your solitude subsides

D D7M G A

We could be daytime drunks if we wanted, we'd never get anything done that way baby

And we'd still be ruled by our dueling perspectives
Bm x 2

and I'm not my story or perspective

or the lies I'll tell you every time
D D7

And Rob says you love, love, love and then you die

I've watched him while sleeping and seen him cry with closed eyes

D D7M G A
D D7M G A

And you're not happy but you're funny and I'm tripping over my joy

but I just keep on getting up again

D D7M G A
D D7M G Gbm
Bm Bm A A

Gbm Bm
Teach you how to swim

you turn the bad in me into good again

Em Gbm G A Bm A A7 A
D D7

And I say there's trouble when everything is fine

the need to destroy things creeps up on me every time and just as love's silhouette appears

I close my eyes and disappear with you tonight and something's got to change

cause our love's the slowest moving train

Em Gbm G A Bm A A7 A
