Verse: Em G C7M

Chorus:

Let's get together and talk about the modern age. All of our friends were gathered with their pets just talking shit about how we're all so upset about the disappearing As we watch it melt.... (C7M5)

It's all of the good that won't come out of us and how eventually our hands will just turn to dust, if we keep shaking them. Standing here on this frozen lake.

I do this thing where I think I'm really sick, but I won't go to the doctor to find out it. Cause they make you stay real still in a real small space as they chart up your and put them on display.

C7M5

They'd see all of it, all of me, all of it.

All of the good that won't come out of me and all the stupid lies I hide behind. It's such a big mistake, lying here in your warm embrace.

Oh, you're almost home. I've been waiting for you to come in. Dancing around in your old suits going crazy in your room again.

I think I'll go out and embarrass myself by getting drunk and falling down in the street.

You say I choose sadness, that it has never chosen me.

Maybe you're right....

(second time has less variation)

Intro: 2x

Let's talk about all of our friends who lost the war and all of the novels that had yet be written about them.

It's all the good that won't come out of them, and all the stupid lies they hide behind. It's such a big mistake, standing here on this frozen lake. It's all of the good that won't come out of me and how eventually my mouth will just turn to dust, if I don't tell you quick. Standing here on this frozen lake.
