

Ringo Starr - Early 1970

Tom: C
Intro: A E

A E
Lives on a farm, got plenty of charm, beep, beep
A E
He's got no cows but he's sure got a whole lotta sheep
D E
And brand new wife and a family
E
And when he comes to town
A
I wonder if he'll play with me

E B
Laying in bed, watching tv, cookie!
E B
With his mama by his side, she's japanese
A B
They scream and they cried, now they're free
B
And when he comes to town
E
I know he's gonna play with me

[Ponte] C G

C G

He's a long-haired, cross-legged guitar picker, um-um
C G
With his long-legged lady in the garden picking daisies for his soup
F G
A forty acre house he doesn't see
G
'Cause he's always in town
C
Playing for you with me

[Solo] C G C G
F G E

A D E
I play guitar
A E
I don't play bass 'cause that's too hard for me
D C
I play the piano if it's in c
E A
And when I go to town I wanna see all three
E A
And when I go to town I wanna see all three
E A
And when I go to town I wanna see all three

Acordes

