

Rise Against - But Tonight We Dance

Tom: C

^{Am} Breathe deep and easy
^G Swallow this pride.
^F Stare at my shaking hands
^E through bone dry, blood shot eyes.

^{Am} Clock strips the hours,
^G I count the miles.
^F Will you be there waiting,
^E awake until sunrise.

^F I've traveled in darkness,
^E for what seems like days,
^F I crawl from the sinkholes,
^E collapsed under this weight.
^F I know not your sorrow,
^E but I know mine,
^F So say you'll stay
^G and dance with me tonight.

^{Am} In the glow of twilight,
^G our world is finally calm.
^F I felt it complete me,
^E when the stars give way to dawn.

^{Am} A language universal,
^G but I speak not its tongue.
^F Is this a night that spans forever,
^E or a dawn that never comes.

^F I've traveled in darkness,
^E for what seems like days,
^F I crawl from the sinkholes,
^E collapsed under this weight.
^F I know not your sorrow,
^E but I know mine,
^F So say you'll stay
^G and dance with me tonight.

^{Am} Tomorrow we might wake
^C in servitude and service
^{Am} I will give you everything
^C if only you would have me.
^{Am} Tomorrow we will sweat and toil,
^C Our hands will quiver caked with soil,
^{Am} Tomorrow we'll give it one last chance,
^C But tonight we dance,
^E But tonight we dance

^{Am F C G Am F C E}

And for
^F this, I travel in darkness,
^E for what seems like days,
^F I crawl from the sinkholes,
^E collapsed under this weight.
^F I know not your sorrow,
^E but I know mine,
^F So say you'll stay
^G and dance with me tonight
