

Rise Against - House On Fire

Tom: A

m

I can see the storms, in her eyes now

I'm falling overboard, in the waves

In over my head and she's a high tide

That keeps pushing me away

I thought that we would build this together

But everything I touch just seems to break

Am I your sail or your anchor?

Am I the calm or the hurricane?

I feel the ground start to shake

I hear a voice shouting, no!

But there is no fking way I'd leave you

[Refrão]

So I'll just hold you like a hand grenade

You touch me like a razor blade

I wish there was some other way right now

Like a house on fire we're wrapped in flames

I'd burn you if that's what it takes

To let you know I won't let go of you

But is the soundtrack to our lives

The bang of a slamming door?

What happens when we all start to feel like

Nothing matters anymore?

Every day like a chambered round

A trigger pulled, a hammer click

A breath we hold, a world outside I can't control

No matter what I do

[Refrão]

So I'll just hold you like a hand grenade

You touch me like a razor blade

I wish there was some other way right now

Like a house on fire we're wrapped in flames

I'd burn you if that's what it takes

To let you know I won't let go of you

[Ponte]

And how is it a thing?

That we just wanna hurt each other

I'm waiting on for rain

Feels like is gonna rain forever

Someday you will learn

That all I ever did was for you

And I would do it all again

I would do it all again

[Refrão]

'Til then I'll hold you like a hand grenade

You touch me like a razor blade

I wish there was some other way right now

Like a house on fire we're wrapped in flames

I'd burn you if that's what it takes

To let you know I can't let go of you

Of you, of you, of you, of you
