

Rise Against - The Violence

Tom: Eb

Dancing on the crumbling precipice
The rocks are coming loose just at the edge

Are we laughing? Are we crying?

Are we drowning? Are we dead?

Or is it all a dream?

The bombs are getting closer everyday
'That can never happen here - we used to say

Have these wars come to our doorstep?

Has this moment finally come?

Or is it all a dream?

Are we not good enough?

Are we not brave enough?

Is the violence in our nature

Just the image of our maker?

Are we not good enough?

Are we not brave enough?

To become something greater

Than the violence in our nature?

Are we not good, good enough?

Or is it all a dream?

To a predetermined fate are we condemned
Or maybe we're a book without an end

We're not stories, we're not actors

We're awake and in control

And this is not a dream

So can we break this mold
And set in motion something new

Forgetting what we know

An evolution overdue

Fight the current
Pull the ripcord

Get away!

Get away!

Get away!

Get away!

Are we not good enough?

Are we not brave enough?

Is the violence in our nature

Just the image of our maker?

Are we not good enough?

Are we not brave enough?

To become something greater

Than the violence in our nature?

Are we not good, good enough?

Well trodden paths are all we take
We need a storm

Let's pray for rain now

To wash these roads away

Let's get off track and wander far

Same roads lead to same destinations

Follow nothing but your heart

We're talking in our sleep

And sleeping through our lives

We dream of the places

Where we never die

We step from our shadows

And into the light

Are we not good enough?

Are we not brave enough?

Is the violence in our nature

Just the image of our maker?

Are we not good enough?

Are we not brave enough?

To become something greater

Than the violence in our nature?

Are we not good enough?

Are we not brave enough?

Are we not good, good enough?

Or was it all a dream?
