

Rising Appalachia - Medicine

tom:

Intro: Em Am G

[Primeira Parte]

Em
Wise men say that rushing is violence
Am
And so is your silence when it's rooted in compliance
Em
To stand firm in loving defiance
Am
Make art your alliance
Give voice to the fire

Em
Move people to the beat of the wind
Am
Gather yourself and begin to dance the song until it ends
Em
We are winners, champions of the light
Am
Forming in numbers and might
Keep the truth close in sight

[Refrão]

Em Am
Medicine Woman, Medicine Man
Em Am
Walking with grace, I know your face, and I trust your hand
Em Am
Em Am
Walking with grace, I know your face, and I trust your hand

[Segunda Parte]

Em
Find your teachers in the voice of the forests
Am
Unplug you can't ignore this wisdom of the voiceless
Em
Remedies are bountiful and surround us
Am
From the garden to the farthest
Prayer made of star dust

Em
Find your healing in the music that calls you
Am
The voice that entralls you, What do you belong to?
Em
Eyes out there's the setting of the sun
Am
Give thanks to each and everyone

The lesson is the

[Terceira Parte]

Em
I believe in bending backwards and extending
Am
In my tracks, trip back

Until the message is in action and
Em
Your yard is feeding

Stop stark the disbelieving
Am
Cause the garden holds the shards

The medicine is in the seeds when
Em
We hold tight to our right to protect and
Am
We know our might is 10-fold in connection
Em
Our elders hold them bright lights

We protect them
Am
The medicine is evident

The wolf, the hawk, the bear clan
