

Rô - Waiting (feat. Ysmn)

Why do I keep remembering the dates?
 Like the day you crossed my way
 Even the color of your hair
 Who would thought that I would care
 It was blue back then
 If we would meet, no bed would keep me down
 Six o'clock and I'd be up till dawn
 Waiting all day for your text
 Who would guess what happened next
 Guess I've been waiting for too long
 Shouldn't be drowning on my own
 That's something I'm not used to
 Missing someone like you
 Is like hurting myself
 Hurting myself
 Guess I've been waiting for too long
 You know I'd rather be hit with the truth
 Than to feel like I'm the one
 Who's being fooled by you

Even if I get hurt
 Some people say that I'm
 Stuck here by your side
 But, I swear, I can't wait all this time
 Guess I've been waiting for too long
 Shouldn't be drowning on my own
 That's something I'm not used to
 Missing someone like you
 Is like hurting myself
 Hurting myself
 Guess I've been waiting for too long
 Waiting
 Waiting
 Guess I've been waiting for too long
 Guess I've been waiting for too long
 Shouldn't be drowning on my own
 That's something I'm not used to
 Missing someone like you
 Is like hurting myself
 Hurting myself
 Guess I've been waiting for too long
