

Ron Pope - If You Were A Stone

Tom: Ab

(com acordes na forma de G) G)
 Capotraste na 1ª casa
 Intro: 2x: G D Em C

Chorus:

If you were a stone then I'd be the rain
 Turn you to sand as the time slips away
 If you were a tree then I'd be the earth
 Clutching your roots as you reach skyward

Verse 1:

I am a metaphor for all the things I couldn't say
 It's never easy, then it hurts
 Like scratching diamonds I have tried to find my way to you
 But we're both moving in reverse

Pre Chorus:

I wish that we could both find a simple way just to make it by
 Right now I'm alright if you're just fine

Chorus

Verse 2

Some nights you're a photograph fading in my memory
 Some days I feel you on my skin
 We're trading silence
 There are words that seem to steal our breath

And I just dream about your lips

Pre Chorus

Chorus

Chorus 2:

We'd count the stars
 My hands in your leaves
 And I'd hold my breath 'til we both fell asleep
 If you were a stone then I'd be the rain,
 Turn you to sand as the time slips away

Bridge: (Mute chords early on)

I will wait, I will wait, I will wait for?
 I will wait, I will wait, I will wait for?
 I will wait, I will wait, I will wait for you

I will wait, I will wait, I will wait for?

I will wait, I will wait, I will wait for?
 I will wait, I will wait, I will wait for you

Chorus

Outro:

If you were a stone then I'd be the rain,
 Turn you to sand as the time slips away (End on C)
