

Rosa de Saron - Memories

Tom: F

My day has gone, the night is bringing memories of past, memories of you don't think that I've forgotten you I'm right here

Sleeples and cold, it's four ten,
 only four ten at dawn, it's alright,
 I'm drinking a coffee, I get up, open the window and I scream out loud, loudly

Wherever you are, I will be Hoping that you will, be waiting for me
 And you must be sure, I'm really your friend
 Forever your friend, I'm very glad

It's only mid-day, of rainy weekend
 I was in bed, but I woke up
 I put on some pants, I pack my bags grab my old guitar, Look, I'm right behind you

Where you are, I will be
 Hoping that you will, be waiting for me
 And you must be sure, I'm really your friend
 Forever your friend, I'm so glad

Base Solo:

(F Eb Bb Eb C) (2x)

Then I realized, that the peace I didn't have
 Was here inside and I was lost in a castle of illusion
 And with my mind clear, I'm coming back home because today I live,

'cause where you are, I will be Hoping that too wil, be waiting for me
 And you must be sure, I'm really you friend Forever friend, I'm very glad

Yeah, there was a castle of illusion

In a castle of illusion
