

Ross Lynch & Olivia Holt - Drowning

tom:

Intro: E B

[Primeira Parte]

The ocean is heavy
Your current is strong
You're pulling me deeper
Been here all along

[Pré-Refrão]

Remember the time I first saw you
I thought you'd be mine and it felt so good
One look in your eyes and I swear I knew
Of your kiss, your touch, your love

[Refrão]

And I can't breathe
I'm strugg-lliiiiing
My hearts at ease
Cause I'm drowning
Cause I'm drowning
In your love

[Segunda Parte]

It seems that the love songs have got it all wrong
I thought I would fly (we'll fly, we'll fly)
And its getting harder the further we fall
But I'm feeling high (so high, so high)

[Pré-Refrão]

I took on the lies and played the fool
I found there's no getting over you
And all of this time I never knew

Of your kiss, your touch, your lovepe

[Refrão]

And I can't breathe
I'm strugg-lliiiiing
My hearts at ease
Cause I'm drowning
Cause I'm drowning
In your love

Oh, don't you break my heart now
Don't leave me wanting more
Give me love, give me someone to hold
Messing with the stars didn't get us very far, oh no, oh no
I'll never break your heart
You're what I'm looking for
All I need is you forever more
Messing with the stars didn't get us very far, oh no, oh no

[Refrão]

And I can't breathe
I'm strugg-lliiiiing
My hearts at ease
Cause I'm drowning
Cause I'm drowning
In your loh-ooooooooove (love)

Drowning in your
Drowning (drowning)
Drowning (drowning)
Drowning in your love
In your love
Messing with the stars
Drowning in your love
