

Roxette - Call Of The Wild

Tom: E

Intr. Dbm E B Dbm (2x)

I know her and every notion i get from her i wear inside me
 I know her all of the broken leaves of love she leaves behind
 Oh, don't you hide away from the rain,
 Oh, can you tell me the name of this game
 I gotta get through to you

Behind the door, another wall, a lonely cry, a call of the wild,
 a dancing daze, an empty face, a crystal high
 a call of the wild.

And there is something that sweeps the dark
 a lover's dart, the call of a broken heart.

Wrapped in the night, behind these eyes, oh hear the cry
 a call of the wild

( Dbm E B Dbm ) (2x)

I know her and in my mind I dream of her, how she aches without me.

I know her and every heart is a lonely hunter when she walks by.

Oh, can you read the hurt in my eyes?

Oh, don't you leave without saying goodbye.

I got to get through to you.

Behind the door, another wall, a lonely cry, a call of the wild,
 a dancing daze, an empty face, a crystal high
 a call of the wild.

And there is something that sweeps the dark
 a lover's dart, the call of a broken heart.

Wrapped in the night, behind these eyes, oh hear the cry
 a call of the wild
