

Roxette - Summers Rain

Tom: D

Scars are the wounds that we show, time only heals when we're letting go

Riff 1

I'll find you some how

Standing alone, in a dream where nothing is real oh how...

And do I stand alone like a fool out in the rain there were times I lost my way I was alone lost... where are you now.

Hangin' on somehow to an ancient vow where there's nothing left to gain

I'll find you some how

And do you know How it feels inside

And do I stand alone like a fool out in the rain

To be all alone A fool and his pride

a summer's rain
