

Roy Orbison - Heading South

Tom: A

^A
I want to talk to folks back home again,
^E
to walk along a lonely country lane
^D ^E ^D ^E
To spend some time with that woman of mine
^D ^A ^D ^E ^A ^D ^A ^D ^E ^A
Heading south, Heading south

^A ^E ^A ^D
Things look bright and I feel alright,
^A ^E ^A
Yeah, I'm heading south

^E ^A
Heading south to see the sun go down on campfire light,

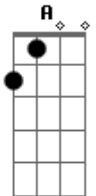

^D ^E ^A
To join in the singing at night
^E ^A
Heading south to cotton rows and honeysuckle bloom
^D ^E ^A
Under the Cumberland moon
^E ^A ^E ^A
Heading south, heading south

Give me room to travel on my way, to a place where dreams won't fade away
Where the river flows and tobacco grows
Heading south, Heading south

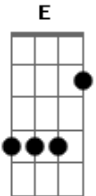

Where the sun is hot and people love a lot,
Yeah, I'm heading south
