

Roy Orbison - Heading South

Tom: A

<sup>A</sup>
I want to talk to folks back home again,
<sup>E</sup>
to walk along a lonely country lane
<sup>D E A D E</sup>
To spend some time with that woman of mine
<sup>D A D E A D A D E A</sup>
Heading south, Heading south

<sup>A E A D</sup>
Things look bright and I feel alright,
<sup>A E A</sup>
Yeah, I'm heading south

<sup>E</sup> Heading south to see the sun go down on campfire light, <sup>A</sup>

<sup>D E A</sup>
To join in the singing at night
<sup>E</sup> Heading south to cotton rows and honeysuckle bloom
<sup>D E A</sup>
Under the Cumberland moon
<sup>E A E A</sup>
Heading south, heading south

Give me room to travel on my way, to a place where dreams won't fade away
Where the river flows and tobacco grows
Heading south, Heading south

Where the sun is hot and people love a lot,
Yeah, I'm heading south

Chorus
