

Roy Orbison - Here Comes That Song Again

Tom: A

Here comes that song again
 They're playing that song again
 I guess it will never end (never end)
 They're playing it again
 Here comes that song again
 Here comes that old ache again
 The story of my life begins

They're telling it again

I'll have to leave I can't bear it anymore
 There must be a place where they'll play a different score
 Here comes that song again
 The jukebox must have found a friend
 My heart will never mend
 They're playing it again

Instrumental verse
 Here comes that song again
 The jukebox... and fade
