A D A E D A E
Man by himself lives in a world a world of his own
A D E
But there's no one who can live in the world all alone

For it takes all kinds of people
D E
It doesn't matter where they come from
A D E
Yes it takes all kinds of people
D E
The good, the bad, and everyone

Bb Eb F Bb F Eb Bb F
On the way up, a man can walk over his friends
Bb Eb F

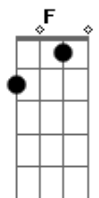

What goes up comes down, one day he may need them again

Chorus (in Bb )

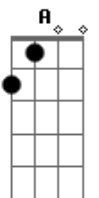

F Bb F C Bb C F
There'll come the day when everyone passes him by
F Bb C
What will he say when nobody answers his cry?

F Bb C
That it takes all kinds of people
Bb C
It doesn't matter where they come from
F Bb D
Yes it takes all kinds of people
C Dm
It may take some time but each man will find
C F G
That he needs all kinds of people
C F G
That he must believe in people
C F G
Yes it takes all kinds of people to make a world
