

Roy Orbison - The Clown

Tom: C

I was a clown when I thought I had found A love for me and only me but she laughed at the clown turned him down turned him down I never frown ah, ah, ah, I'm the clown for it breaks my heart I play the part of a clown runnin round trouble bound I'm the clown I wander all around, wondering if you ever cared I go from place to place, I look from face to face hoping that you will be there All over town the word is out, it's all around that I love her still guess I always will I'm the clown runnin round trouble bound I'm the clown
