

Rozei - Retrograde

tom: Gb B

Well up North's been getting lonely
 Since you left
 And lately, there's a ghost inside
 My bed
 Oh, darling, all my serotonin left
 With someone I don't know
 And the weight of you
 Still lingers on my chest
 Oh, I know December's awfully cold
 So I guess I'll take the long way home
 While I'm running on empty
 But we're still a thousand miles apart
 I hope that you're happy
 'Cause I'm stuck here
 Wishing on shooting stars
 So darling, tell me, how's the weather?
 'Cause I ain't seen the sun in days
 Oh, my love, you feel a world away
 While I'm trapped in retrograde
 I've tried to make it out of
 This god forsaken town

Seems like every conversation's
 Got your name inside it now
 I don't mind the word of mouth
 But I heard that you're heading south
 Now all the constellations
 Are burning out
 Oh, I know December's awfully cold
 So I guess I'll take the long way home
 While I'm running on empty
 But we're still a thousand miles apart
 I hope that you're happy
 'Cause I'm stuck here
 Wishing on shooting stars
 So darling, tell me, how's the weather?
 'Cause I ain't seen the sun in days
 Ooooooooooh, my love, I'm
 Trapped in retrograde
 ( Ebm Db B Gb )
 ( Ebm Db B Gb )
 And ever since you left here, now
 This place ain't been the same
 Ooooooooooh, my love, I'm
 Trapped in retrograde
