

Rufus Du Sol - Sundream

Fm tom:

I want to feel that you want it
 I want to feel by the morning
 I want to feel that you want it
 Oh let me feel what you are

Flashes on match heads
 Splashes of ashes
 Embers arising
 Smoke fills the skies in

Wind blows in then crashes
 Waves over the ashes
 Hills washed up in violet
 Eyes close up to hide it

I want to feel that you want it
 I want to feel by the morning
 I want to feel that you want it
 Oh let me feel what you are

I want to feel that you want it

I want to feel by the morning
 I want to feel that you want it
 Oh let me feel what you are

Freefall in paris
 Sundreams in flashes
 Growing and rising
 Rain fills the skies in

Sunday morning crashes
 Flickering of lashes
 Sink into the mattress
 Fall into the atlas
 Flashes on match heads

Splashes of ashes

Sink in the mattress

Tell me that you want it

I want to feel that you want it
 I want to feel by the morning
 I want to feel that you want it
 Oh let me feel what you are

I want to feel that you want it
 I want to feel by the morning
 I want to feel that you want it
 Oh let me feel what you are
