

RuPaul - The Main Event

Tom: G

Here we go again
 Chapter two, turn another page
 I'm walking in the rain
 Paint a smile upon my face
 'Cause I won't let
 The spotlight
 See the heartbreak
 In my love life
 When the laughter starts to fade
 All the drama takes center stage
 Strike up the band

Bang a drum like the beat of my heart
 You left before the end
 Before our story had a chance to start
 When you step in-
 To the disco
 Leave your problems
 At the front door
 You know, the world don't have to end
 Long as the DJ records spin
 This is the main event, are you ready?
 Just let the music dance into your soul
 Faster, faster, exhilarating
 Just let the rhythm make you lose control
