[Primeira Parte]
Pretty wings, you're the prettiest thing
You're like Parker Posey in a magazine
With faded jeans and a crop top back in '93
I wanna be your dressed-in-black
Your dark star with a backwards hat
I'm gonna write a book and put your name on every page
Every page
[Refrão]
Hey pretty little mockingbird
                  Em D
Keep singin' them sad, sad songs
There's already rain on my window
I'm dyin' when the morning comes
Flew away in the night with the raven
Now I'm underneath the willows hangin'
I'm too strung out to be upside down C D
Pretty little mockingbird, sing me a song
[Segunda Parte]
\ensuremath{\mathrm{I}} was the desert, honey, you were the sand
```

I was a bird, baby, you were the branch
And I flew into the blue and watched those flowers dyin'
It wasn't much, just everything
You could've sat right there and got high with me
But you fell asleep and your dreamin' brought the nightmares
Brought the nightmares
