                                                                                 Em
                          tom:
              Abm (forma dos acordes no tom de Em )
                                                              The way you're moving closer on the floor
Capostraste na 4º casa
Intro: Em C G Dadd9
                                                           But I can't help looking and I know I shouldn't
                                                           'Cause you came here tonight with him
   Walking in drunk as hell
                                                                        Em
       Dadd9
                                                           I just wanna scream and shout
Take the bar that you hang around
                                                                   G
                                                           'Cause he's kept you on a tonic and gin
See you change the way you dress
                                                                           C
                                                           So I get too drunk, I get fucked up
       Dadd9
Now you're doing it for someone else
                                                           While I'm sitting all by myself
But does it feel the way you fell Dadd9 Em
                                                                        Em C
                                                           I feel like I lose my mind
When you had your lips on mine?
                                                            G Dadd9
                                                           When I see you dancing with someone else
Did it take you long to find?
               Dadd9
                                                           With someone else
Does he keep you warm in bed at night?
                    Em Dadd9
                                                           But I don't wanna waste your time
'Cause you've gone cold, I know
        Em Dadd9
                                                           By calling you up at three in the morning
   The way you're moving closer on the floor
                                                                                  Fm
                                                           So won't you stop wasting my
But I can't help looking and I know I shouldn't
                                                           Forget what it was and wait till tomorrow
'Cause you came here tonight with him
                                                           But I don't wanna waste your time
            Fm
I just wanna scream and shout
                                   Dadd9
                                                           By calling you up at three in the morning
'Cause he's kept you on a tonic and gin
  Em C
                                                           So won't you stop wasting my
So I get too drunk, I get fucked up
                                                             Dadd9
                                                           Forget what it was
While I'm sitting all by myself
                                                           But I can't help looking and I know I shouldn't
       Em C
I feel like I lose my mind
                                                              G
                  Dadd9
                                                           'Cause you came here tonight with \mathop{\text{\rm him}}\nolimits
  G
When I see you dancing with someone else
                                                                      Em
                                                           I just wanna scream and shout
(Em C G)
                                                                       G
                                                            Cause he's kept you on a tonic and gin
Dadd9
                                                           Dadd9 Em
                                                           And oh, I get too drunk, I get fucked up
With someone else
(Em C G Dadd9)
                                                           And i sit here all by myself
                                                                Em C
                                                           I feel like I lose my mind
 I should just get up and go
                                                                                Dadd9
       Dadd9
                                                           When I see you dancing with someone else
Call the girl that I used to know
                                                           (Em C G)
But you're just across the room
    Dadd9
                                                           Dadd9
And my eyes are fixed on you
                                                           With someone else
And I remember how it felt
                                                           Someone Flse
      Dadd9
With your body pressed on mine
                                                           Someone Else
Run your hands along my chest
                                                           Someone Else
      Dadd9
                                                           Phhad
Sending shivers down my spine
                                                           With someone else
                     Em Dadd9

'Cause you've gone cold, I know
