Ryan Ross - The Bad List (part. Z Berg / Ryan Ross)

Tom: G Intro: E A Gbm But something changed along the way Am F Winter never turned to Spring Ghm If it were me, I'd write another song Abm Α Something in a major key It's Christmas Eve, you set the house on fire Gbm Α F Α You and I will always be "the dream" It's snowing on palm trees E Gbm Am It was a scream when we were young and dumb If you stay, you're gonna die Abm Α Acid on Topanga Beach So let me help you please Gbm Δ F In my mind we'll always be that free Let me help you leave Am Say goodbye on Christmas Eve F Am But something changed along the way B Winter never turned to Spring But there's no bandage B There ain't no ballad It's Christmas Eve, you set the house on fire F To fix the sadness Α It's snowing on palm trees Dbm So happy Christmas Am The river has run dry Gbm Back on the bad list F So let me set you free В I don't want no gifts Let me help you please Just a first kiss Am Say goodbye on Christmas Eve Dbm For the new year Gbm All the lights are on, but no one's home Just a first kiss Dbm Abm Α Out cold on my frozen feet To face the new year F Gbm Α With nothing lying underneath the tree (E Dbm E) E Gbm The only soul I knew to telephone F Gbm If it were me, I'd write another song Abm Knows I'm lying through my teeth Am Say goodbye Gbm F We were always thick as thieves, you and me

Acordes

