

Sabrina Carpenter - Why

Tom: D

G D
You like New York City in the daytime

Bm A
I like New York City in the nighttime

G D
You say you like sleeping with the air off

Bm A
I don't, I need it on

G D
You like the light coming through the windows

Bm A
I sleep late, so I just keep 'em all closed

G D
You ignore the music on the radio

Bm A
I don't, I sing-a-long

G D Bm A
I don't ask for you to change, baby no no no

G D Bm A
And you don't ask for me to change

N.C.
Tell me how we're not alike

Bm A
But we work so well and we don't even know why

G D
Funny how the stars crossed right

Bm A
'Cause we work so well and we don't even know why

G D
You can call it fire and ice

Bm A
But we work so well and we don't even know why

G D
We don't even know why, no no

Bm A
We don't even know why, no no no

N.C.
No no no no

D
We like it in the daytime

Bm A
We like it in the end of time

N.C.
No no no no

D
We like it in the daytime

Bm A
We like it in the end of time

G D
Cold outside and you're just in a T-shirt

Bm A
I have cold blood even in a sweater

G D
You start your night sippin' by the Kilo

Bm A
I don't, I know you know

G D Bm A
I don't ask for you to change, baby no no no

G D Bm A
And you don't ask for me to change

N.C.
Tell me how we're not alike

Bm A
But we work so well and we don't even know why

G D
Funny how the stars crossed right

Bm A
I don't, I know you know

G D
'Cause we work so well and we don't even know why

G D
You can call it fire and ice

Bm A
But we work so well and we don't even know why

G D
We don't even know why, no no

Bm A
We don't even know why, no no no

N.C.
No no no no

D
We like it in the daytime (we don't even know)

Bm A
We like it in the end of time (we don't even know)

N.C.
No no no no

D
We like it in the daytime

Bm A
We like it in the nighttime

G D
You can call it fire and ice

Bm A
But we work so well and we don't even know why

G D
We don't even know why, no no

Bm A
We don't even know why, no no no

N.C.
No no no no

D
We like it in the daytime (we don't even know)

Bm A
We like it in the end of time (we don't even know)

N.C.
No no no no

D
We like it in the daytime

Bm A
(We don't even know, know, know, know, know)

G D
Somehow we end up on the same side

Bm A
And you wouldn't think that we'd be alright

G D Bm A
Even our eyes are different colors, but we see fine

G D
Somehow we end up on the same side (up on the same side)

Bm A
And you wouldn't think that we'd be alright

(Think that we'd be alright)

G D Bm A
Even our eyes are different colors, but we see fine

N.C.
(Oh) Tell me how we're not alike

Bm A
But we work so well and we don't even know why

('Cause we work so well and we don't even know why, why)

G D
Funny how the stars crossed right

Bm A
'Cause we work so well and we don't even know why

(But we don't even know why)

G D
You can call it fire and ice

Bm A
But we work so well and we don't even know why

('Cause we work so well and we don't even know why, why)

G D
We don't even know why, no no

Bm A
We don't even know why, no no no

N.C.
No no no no

D
We like it in the daytime (we don't even know)

Bm A
We like it in the end of time (we don't even know)

N.C.
No no no no

D
We like it in the daytime

Bm A
We like it in the nighttime
