

Saltpaper - Satellite (Chicago Typewriter OST)

tom:
 Capotraste na 1ª casa
 Intro: Cadd9 G Cadd9 G

I'm walking all night long in mysteries
 You're singing all day long in maze

Without song in my heart, it is a lie
 Still I am wondering why

I'm feeling all my lights going out
 All I can hear is your lullaby

From your guide now I'm here without knowing
 Those melodies I sing like I know

Don't wanna say goodbye
 I wanna hear your voices...in dreams

Don't wanna see your tears
 I wanna see your traces...I hear you

Say I will if our tears haven't fade away
 I may cross now or I won't

Say I will if our hands didn't get to hold
 Hourglass stories of me and you, we loved

Satellite love
 Through the rain, to the stars

Satellite love
 Through the rain, to the stars

Say I will if our tears haven't fade away
 I may cross now or I won't

Say I will if our hands didn't get to hold
 Hourglass stories of me and you someday
