

Sam Smith - Like I Can

```
Tom: B
                                                         Like I can, can can
                                Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb
                                                         Repete o Refrão:
Eb Primeira Parte:
                                                          Why are you looking
He could be a sinner
                                                            Fbm
                                                         Down all the wrong roads
          Gb B
Or a gentleman
                                                         When mine is the heart
He could be a preacher
                                                             В
                                                         And the salt of the soul
When your soul is damned
          Ab
                                                         There may be lovers
                                                           Ebm Abm
He could be a lawyer
Gb Eb
On a witness stand, but
                                                         Who hold out their hands but
                                                          He'll never love you
 He'll never love you
                                                          Abm E B
                                                         Like I can, can can
 Ab E B
Like I can, can
                                                         He'll never love you
                                                           E B
He could be a stranger
                                                         Like I can, can
                                                         Dbm
You gave a second glance
                                                          He'll never love you
         Ab
                                                               E
He could be a trophy
                                                         Like I can, can
 Gb
Of a one night stand
                                                         Segunda Parte:
                 Ab
He could have your humor
             Eb
But I don't understand 'cause
 He'll never love you
 Ab E B
Like I can, can can
                                                            Abm
                                                         We both have demons
Refrão:
                                                          E B
                                                         That we can't stand
                                                          Abm
 Why are you looking
                                                         I love your demons
                                                            E B
Down all the wrong roads
                                                         Like devils can
                                                           F
                                                         If you're self-seeking
 When mine is the heart
                                                            Gb Abm
And the salt of the soul
                                                         An honest man
There may be lovers Abm
                                                           Dbm
                                                         Then stop deceiving Lord please
Who hold out their hands but
                                                         Repete o Refrão:
He'll never love you
Abm E B
Like I can, can can
                                                          Why are you looking
                                                             Ebm
                                                         Down all the wrong roads
 He'll never love you
 Ebm E B
                                                          When mine is the heart
Like I can, can
                                                               В
                                                         And the salt oGb the soul
Repete a Primeira Parte:
                                                         There may be lovers
Ebm Abm
                                                         Who hold out their hands but
A chance encounter
Of circumstance
                                                          He'll never love you
          Ab
                                                          Abm
                                                              E B
Maybe he's a mantra
                                                         Like I can, can can
                                                         He'll never love you
Keeps your mind entranced
                                                              E B
             Ab
                                                         Like I can, can
He could be the silence
Gb Eb
In this mayhem, but then again
                                                         He'll never love you
                                                           E
 He'll never love you
                                                         Like I can, can
```

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br

Acordes

