

Samara Goes - Paradise

tom:

C

I'm taking a breath

You owe me that

I'm hiding my feelings

So why don't you leave me?

And they can guess that

I'm a mess

I'm asking for some time

Too tired for goodbyes

And I don't want

To be alone but don't

Come back tonight

I'm feeling so tired

Of running away from you

I'm my paradise

I cannot deny

You know that's true

I don't love you

I don't love you

Just leave me here

Me and my fears

I know you deserve more

You should fight for it

I can't pretend that

We're more than friends

It's how it should be

And now you are free

I can't be what you want

So please, don't

Come back tonight

I'm feeling so tired

Of running away from you

I'm my paradise

I cannot deny

You know that's true

I don't love you

I don't love you

I should be there for you but I ran away, ooh

The things I used to feel now seem so fake but don't

Come back tonight

I'm feeling so tired

Of running away from you

I'm my paradise

I cannot deny

You know that's true

I don't love you

I don't love you

I don't love you
