

Samiam - Sunshine

Don't mean to deceive
                            tom:
Intro: E A Dbm
                                                               But it's they who believe
 Gbm A
                                                               They fall in love with the girl they perceive not you
E A
                                                                                         Dbm
                                                               They see what they want in you they
Mon-day
                                                               Get what they need from you
Sun-shine
Dbm B
So high
                                                               They take advantage of you
It's hard to see
                                                               They would be nothing without you
E A Dbm Gbm A E A
Through the sun-day clouds still lingering
A Dbm B A B
How you wound up in the sea
                                                               Without you
                                                               (E A Dbm)
                                                               (Gbm A)
Spinning above
                                                               Blind them with kind-ness
While burning inside
                                                               Dbm B A
                                                               Until they are reminding
Further you go and deeper you dive
  Dbm B
Don't mean to deceive
                                                               Spinning above and burning inside
But it's they who believe
                                                               Further you go and deeper you dive
                                                                       В
They fall in love with the girl they perceive not you
                                                               Don't mean to deceive
( E A Dbm )
                                                               But it's they who believe
(Gbm A)
                                                               They fall in love with the girl they perceive not you
Blind them with kind-ness
                                                               They see what they want in you they
Dbm B A
Until they are reminding
                                                               Get what they need from you
     A Dbm
                                                               They take advantage of you
They're lonely and desperate
              E
                                                               They would be nothing without you
And you have a secret
E A Dbm
It's something they all think they need
                                                               Without you
                                                               [Final] Dbm A Gbm A
Further you go and deeper you dive
