

Samuel Tucker Young - You Owe Me

tom:

Intro: G G D G

I had this feeling that we were it

I wish you would've told me

For you it don't exist

And all the times I thought you were trying

Was just you getting ready

To leave me behind

You don't wanna date no one

You need to be on your own

To get your head on straight

I guess I should've known

How long did it take?

Did you even wait?

'Cause I can see your pictures

I know you're not alone

You owe me

You owe me

You owe me

You owe me

Stop acting like you don't

You owe me

You owe me

You owe me

Stop acting like you don't

I had this feeling of what I need

But you mean more to you

Than you ever meant to me

I'm checking every freckle on every wrist

'Cause non will never match

The way ours did

I can't forget the straws

I can't forget your curves

If this can't get better

Just don't let it get worse

Just tell me that you're sorry

Even if you're not

You'll never be forgiven

But at least you'll be forgot

You owe me

You owe me

You owe me

You owe me

Stop acting like you don't

You owe me

You owe me

You owe me

Stop acting like you don't

I never let you down

I only let you in

And I know this hurts, my love

But fuck being friends

I know that this it

I get this is the end

But there is still one thing

I need yet

You owe me

You owe me

You owe me

You owe me

An apology

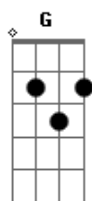

You owe me

You owe me

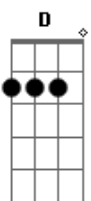

You owe me

An apology
