

San Cisco - Beach

Tom: A

A
Hello hello

I've been waiting, watching you all night
I don't know why

A
In the morning

I'll be waking wishing I was right
Maybe sometimes

A
In the evening I take you out for dinner and a fight
Cant read your mind I cant read your mind

A
We watched the sun go down and then the moon comes out
Ain't pictures with your hand
I chase you I'm your biggest fan

A
Who's gonna catch you now who's gonna catch you now

E
Running so far away so far away

A
My mind is black and blue
It keeps pictures of you

D
Now I know why

A
You moved away from here
Towards another hemisphere

D
And all I want to be is in your company

A
I made a mixed tape
With all the songs that you hate

D
Cant read your mind I give up this time

A
Who's gonna catch you now who's gonna catch you now

E
Running so far away so far away

A E D
Oooooh oooh ohhh oooh oooh
Oooooh oooh ohhh oooh oooh

A
I heard your voice today
But we last spoke in may

D
I still miss you

A
Now you're a ghost a sea
Drifting peacefully

D
You'll never come back to me
I read your eulogy

A
Who's gonna catch you now who's gonna catch you now

E
Running so far away so far away
