I could look upon the obvious

Look through the faithfulness

To touch myself

Or burn a book on shelf

The fire brings me

The old feelings of home

Make a noise a song

Feign that I belong to myself

To get it on

Or do something wrong

Eb F

Just like call my mom and tell her

C

That I broke all of my bones

E F

This is the kind of damning things

That could happen to me

C Am G

When you back in town

Back in town

I could to blame my brain

Run on railtrain lost in time

To think the same

And could lost my real name

Eb F

So then you would run

The whole neighborhood

Trying to find out

All this explain

My plan to build a plan once a time

It sounds insane

And now I forget

Eb F

What was on mind you would mind

If you get was misunderstood on my side

E F

This is the kind of damning things

That could happen to me

C Am G

When you back in town

Back in town

When you back in town
