

Santana - Brown Skin Girl

Tom: Eb
Intro: Cm Fm Bb
She's a force of nature,
That i can't out run
A devil and a savior all in one
Her eyes can heal me
Or they can make me bleed
Her lips have me addicted to the poetry
Of never really knowing
Just who i am (where i stand)
And i admit that i don't mind at all
               Bb
I would trade my world away
 Eb D
To stay inside this dream
I'd never find a better place to fall
Refrão:
I've got a lover, a brown skin girl
She's got a magic of another world
And everytime that i think of her
Cm
I'm on fire, fire
She knows a way, a spiritual flow,
Of making me dizzy, like the vertigo
Her cinnamon kisses melt my soul
```

Like fire, yeah
       Cm
I get a strong vibration
If she just says my name
       Bh
And it drives me crazy
Cause i don't know if she feels the same
     Ab
She likes to breathe some mystery
In all she does
She laughs and says that i'm under her spell
           Bb
Now i won't lie, i enjoy the ride
    Eb D
And pray it never ends
I feel her deeper than anything i've felt
(Refrão)
(Solo)
Ponte:
I can't help but crave another taste of her
                         Bh
Like a drowning man that's praying for the rain
                 Bb
How she worked her way inside- i'll never understand
She's too beautiful to ever take the blame
But she'll always fan the flame
(Cm Fm)
(Refrão)
