

Santana - Nothing At All

Tom: E

Intro:

Repeat until "from knowing that"

Verse riff

Letra

I am a victim of my time
 A produce of my age
 There?s no choosing my direction
 I was a holy man but now
 With all my trials behind me
 I am weak in my conviction

And so I walk to try to get away
 Knowing that someday I will finally have to face
 The fear that will come from knowing that
 The one thing I had left was you
 And now you?re gone

You were a victim of my crimes
 A product of my rage
 You were a beautiful distraction
 I kept you locked away outside
 Let misery provide
 And now I am ashamed

And so I walk to try to find a space
 Where I can be alone to live with my mistakes

And the fear that will come
 From knowing that the one thing
 I had left was you
 And now you?re gone

Chorus

Is there nothing at all
 That i can do to turn your heart
 Is there nothing to lean on
 That could help erase the scars
 Te quiero - me quiero
 And I could use a little strength before I fall
 Is there nothing at all

I am victim of my time
 A product of the age
 You alone are my obsession
 You were the one I left behind
 You?ve been heavy on my mind
 It?s been a lonely road I?ve traveled

And so I walk to try to get away
 Knowing that someday I will finally have to face
 The fear that will come from knowing that
 The one thing I had left was you
 And now you?re gone

Chorus

Is there nothing at all
 That I can do to turn your heart
 Is there nothing to lean on
 That cold help erase the scars
 Te quiero - me quiero
 And I could use a little strength before I fall
 Is there nothing at all
