                                                                'Cause if you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
                                                               If you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
All the single ladies, all the single ladies
                                                               Don't be mad when you see that he want it
All the single ladies, all the single ladies
                                                                'Cause if you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
Put your hands up
Put your hands up
                                                               Don't treat me to the things of the world
                                                               I'm not that kind of girl
Up in the club, just broke up, doing my own little thing
                                                               Your love is what I prefer, is what I deserve
Decided to dip now you wanna trip
                                                               Here's a man that takes me, then makes me
'Cause another brother noticed me
                                                               And delivers me to a destiny, to infinity and beyond
I'm up on him, he's up on me
                                                               Pull me into your arms, say I'm the one you own
                                                               If you don't, you'll be alone, and like a ghost, I'll be gone
I don't pay him any attention
I cried my tears, for three good years
                                                               Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
No you can't be mad at me
                                                                'Cause if you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
'Cause if you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
                                                               If you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
If you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
                                                               Don't be mad when you see that he want it
Don't be mad when you see that he want it
                                                                'Cause if you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
'Cause if you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
                                                               If you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
                                                               If you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
                                                               Don't be mad when you see that he want it
I gloss on my lips, a man on my hips
                                                                'Cause if you liked it, then you shoulda put a ring on it
Got me tighter in my Dereon jeans
                                                               C (repete)
                                                               Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Acting up, gotta drink in my cup
I can care less what you think
                                                               All the single ladies, all the single ladies
                                                               All the single ladies, all the single ladies
I need no permission, did I mention
                                                               All the single ladies, all the single ladies
I don't pay him any attention
                                                               Put your hands up
He had your turn, and now you gonna learn
                                                               So put your hands up
What it really feels like to miss me
                                                               So put your hands up
                                                               Put your hands up
