

Sarah Mclachlan - Ilusions Of Bliss

tom:
 D
 Here I go again
 Back into your arms
 What ever happened to resolve?
 For though I thought that I was strong
 That I could carry on awash in the illusion of this bliss
 Here I go again
 Back into the flame
 Like a moth so willing to be burned
 A little touch, a little taste, the pheromones embrace
 And I get weak with every breathe I take
 'Cause it's you who released me
 It's you who gave me fire
 Oh! And now it's impossible to grow
 Without breaking stride
 I get so high
 Take me out beyond the incline

Make it past the former fault line
 For today I let the moment win
 Here I go again
 Saying things I shouldn't say
 Just so I can hear them back from you
 Oh! I know, I shouldn't stay, I should be on my way Back to a place I know is real
 But the lines are getting blurred
 My conscience wont be heard
 Awash in the illusion of this bliss
 And it's you who released me
 It's you who gave me fire
 Oh! And now it's impossible to grow
 Without breaking stride
 I get so high
 Take me out beyond the incline
 Make it past the former fault line
 For today I let the moment win
