

Sarah Mclachlan - Love Beside Me

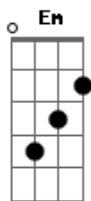

tom:
 I know now there's no one here to blame
 I could, but what good would that do?
 It wouldn't change a thing
 So I grew accustomed to the shame
 The sharp sting of your poison
 Trying so hard to erase
 All the good in me
 If this is love beside me
 I'm working on forgiveness
 Laying the past down behind me
 Letting go the ways that I've been hurt
 Let the rivers rise and rage
 I'll try and stand with grace
 If everything is love
 In the end the war had left us broken
 Mourning all the things I'd lost
 The debts I couldn't pay
 But I didn't want to disappear
 I was caught in TV static

Sinking into grey
 No more to give away
 If this is love beside me
 I'm working on forgiveness
 Laying the past down behind me
 Letting go the ways that I've been hurt
 Let the rivers rise and rage
 I'll try to stand with grace
 If everything is love
 Oooh Oooh Uoooooh Uooooooooooh
 If this is love beside me
 I'm working on forgiveness
 Laying the past down behind me
 Letting go the ways that I've been hurt
 Let the rivers rise and rage
 I'll try to stand with grace Oooh Oooh
 If this is love beside me Oooh
 If this is love beside me Oooh
 If this is love beside me (Em) Em Am
