

Sarah Mclachlan - Rivers Of Love

tom:

Intro: A Em A Em

[Primeira Parte]

There's a tunnel that leads to the rivers of love
 The sides make you bleed til your white as a dove
 Don't bother to bring all the baggage you cling to The porter will free you before you come through

[Pré-Refrão]

The doorway that clenches
 The darkness that mends
 It's easy to smile in the end

[Refrão]

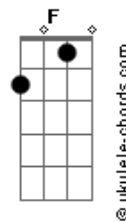

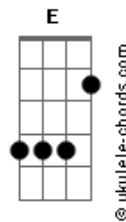

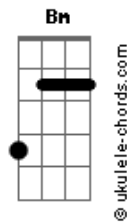

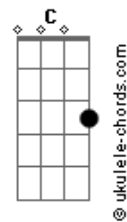

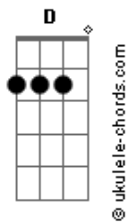

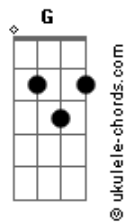

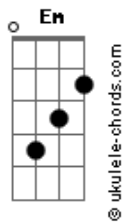

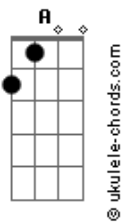

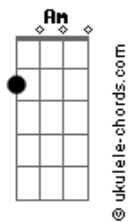

And it all comes down to leaving it all behind
 And moving on to the rivers of love
 And never be lonely again
 How long have you waited? How long til you drown?

[Interlúdio] A Em A Em A

[Segunda Parte]

The rules and directions, the twists and corrections

Acordes

Take tolls on the highs, we strive till we die
 To seek out the one love, the one that we dream of

[Pré-Refrão]

The one may be there with you everyday
 Alone and untethered and free of all ties
 Free since the day you first cried

[Refrão]

And it all comes down to leaving it all behind
 And moving on to the rivers of love
 And never to be lonely again
 How long have you waited? How long til you drown?
