

Sarah Mclachlan - Turn The Lights Down Low

tom:
Bm

Intro: Bm7

Em
Night falls heavy like an iron fist
D
The silence taut and frail
Em
I weigh the depths of love and terror
D
In this test I cannot fail
G Em
'Cause there's no map to guide the human heart
Bm7 G
Down roads we've never been
Em A
Sometimes I feel I'm running blind but I'm trying

G
So turn the lights down low
D
Let the night come easy
G Bm7
Take my hand, won't you let me in?
G
'Cause when the world comes crashing
Em
Down inside your head
C
I'll be right here
A D
Right here for you
Em
Words fall heavy out of tired mouths
D
Resigned to rage and roar
Em
I see behind your eyes the tempest rising
D
And I can't reach your shore
G Em
When all my good intentions fall apart
Bm7 G
And I wind up on my knees

Em A
There's nothing gained from being right but I'm trying

G
So turn the lights down low
D
Let the night come easy
G Bm7
Take my hand, won't you let me in?
G
'Cause when the world comes crashing
Em
Down inside your head
C
I'll be right here
A Bm7
Right here for you

Solo: Bm7 C Bm7 G E G A

G
So turn the lights down low
D
Let the night come easy
G Bm7
Take my hand, won't you let me in?
G
'Cause when the world comes crashing
Em
Down inside your head
C A
I'll be right here
Em Bm7 B
Right here for you
G
Take my hand won't you let me in
'Cause when the world comes crashing
Em
Down inside your head
C A
I'll be right here
C A
I'll be right here waiting
Bm7
Right here for you

Acordes

