

Savatage - Jesus Saves

Tom: G

Jesus was a talker
 Just an out-of-place New Yorker
 He hung out on the boulevard
 He was sellin' nickel candies
 He was saving up all his quarters
 Bought himself a cheap guitar
 Started playin' bars
 Kids came in their cars
 Hear them shouting at the stage

Jesus saves
 Jesus saves
 Hear him cut through the night
 On those late night radio waves
 Jesus saves

You know
 Jesus he started changin'
 Things got really strange
 He saw his tee shirts everywhere
 He started missing shows
 The band came down to blows
 But Jesus he just didn't care
 Things got out of hand
 And so he quit the band
 Still the critics they would rave

Jesus saves
 Jesus saves

Hear him cut through the night
 On those late night radio waves
 Jesus saves
 [solo]

Jesus saves
 Jesus saves
 Hear him cut through the night
 On those late night radio waves
 Jesus saves

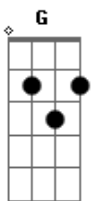

So the dice were cast
 Today become the past
 Jesus just disappeared
 He was headed for New York
 Or so his little label thought
 And there he gave away the years

Last seen drinking wine
 Beneath a flashing sign
 Promising salvation to strays

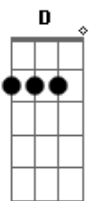

Jesus saves
 Jesus saves
 Hear him cut through the night
 Jesus saves
 AAAhhh

Hear him cut through the night
 cut through the night yeahh
 Jesus saves.
