

Say Hi To Your Mom - Hooplas Involving Circus Tricks

Tom: E
Intro: E Dbm (4x)

[Verse 1]

It's crowded and we're bored
The chamber maid, she snores
The drummer's gone to tune up all her toms
I laid my head down and now my wallet is gone

[Chorus 1]

Hooplas involving circus tricks
At addresses way out in the sticks
The pixies in tight green little skirts say it's so much better now that is hurts
The tides that pull you down in the river
She touched my knee and that made me quiver
Winks with her eye, 3.14 (pi)
Is there anyone who knows the whole thing?

[Break 1]

E Dbm (2x)
B A (2x)

[Verse 2]

It's loaded with references
when the mime speaks about the biz
We asked him for a glass that might be clean
But he's too busy posing for fashion 'zines

[Chorus 2]
