

Say We Can Fly? - I've Lost The Moon

Tom: C

Here i am With Blue eyes and heart in my hand ready to give it away but after tonight i think ill think twice before i go and say things like "Trust me, I swear you can trust me" Cause that's just been my way of hoping that someone will love me but this lovesick boy is getting sick again So this time around i know in my heart I mean it I've lost the moon
 trying to count the stars
 I've lost my mind but thats okay
 cause I've been trying to fix my heart and if I spend all of my time searching for angels in the sky
 I'll miss the one who's right here by my side

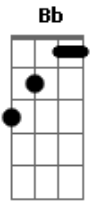

(C Dm Bb)

And there you are: my only hope, my second chance I'm hoping youll give me this one last dance with your heart I know, I know, it might be hard but I will keep you in my arms Cause I've learned the dangers of straying along with the dangers of waiting lets do this together I'll be yours forever or I'd do my best to be I'd die, I'd die trying I've lost the moon
 trying to count the stars
 I've lost my mind but thats okay
 cause I've been trying to fix my heart
 and if I spend all of my time
 searching for angels in the sky
 I'll miss the one who's right here by my side
 And after all of this, I hope you know That I will love you so
 And I won't let you go
