

Schur - Insomniac

tom:
 I take my coffee black and my life too seriously
 I've never been a dreamer I'm an insomniatic sleeper
 I'll lay down wishing I was upright
 Closed eyes waiting on the daylight
 Wake up with no sheets on my bed
 Got goosebumps in my arms and my legs
 I'll cheer up 'cause I don't fuck with dread
 As I'm sweet talked by the voice in my head

That says
 Today I say we make a fucked up melody
 I can hear in my head a song that's a
 Little too sweet for my liking

Today I say we make a fucked up melody
 I can hear in my head a song that's a
 Little too sweet and it goes

Lonely nights I'm falling
 Falling from my window, yeah
 Can you hear me calling?
 Calling for assistance

Walk a night in my shoes and find
 That I've lost my peace of mind
 Yeah I laid back and lost track
 Of any memories that could close my eyes

I'd like to think that who we are
 Extends as far as the day
 And in the night, we come alive
 And tuck the other man in the grave

But I don't think it's pitiful
 'Cause in the night we sing
 And sure the song ain't always calm
 But no one's listening so
 Tonight I'd like to write a fucked up melody
 I can hear in my head a song that's
 A little too sweet for my liking
 Tonight I'd like to write a fucked up melody
 I can hear in my head a song that's
 A little too sweet and it goes

Lonely nights I'm falling
 Falling from my window, yeah
 Can you hear me calling?
 Calling for assistance

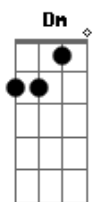

Walk a night in my shoes and find
 That I've lost my peace of mind
 Yeah I laid back and lost track
 Of any memories that could close my eyes

And I know sometimes
 It's a troubled mind
 Who wishes that the falling would last
 'Cause I take my time
 As I live my life
 Crashing through a pane of glass

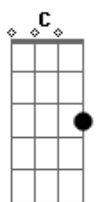

So walk a night in my shoes and find
 That I've lost my peace of mind
 Yeah I laid back
 I lost track
