

Scotty Sire - Sad Song

Tom: D

D
 Alright there's something truly
 Magnificent about being sad and that is that
 G
 Everyone can be sad, some people are sad sometimes
 A
 Other people are sad all the time and this is just a song
 About being sad, WHOOPDIE DOO! LET'S GET TO IT! HAHA

D
 I've got a problem, I'm always so sad
 The littlest things get me pissed off or mad
 My life's pretty good, no I don't have it bad
 So it's hard to explain all these feelings I have

G
 I'm just a baby I think that explains it
 I burnt up my toast got so sad that I fainted
 A
 I played a great song on repeat, now I hate it
 And nobody likes this picture I painted

D
 My only messages come from my mommy
 I spend my life feeling like nobody wants me
 You're kinda cute but your friend is a hottie
 His shiny white teeth and his muscular body

G
 I wear a cool outfit and try to look edgy
 My underwear rides up and gives me a wedgie
 A
 My pants are too tight, now I wish they were stretchy
 Why do these small things always upset me?

D
 Little things make me wanna cry sometimes
 G
 But that's just life
 A
 It'll be alright

D
 If you're really sad
 Everything just turns out wrong
 G
 If you're really sad
 A
 Let me hear you sing this song
 D
 If you're really sad
 Everything just turns out wrong
 G
 If you're really sad
 A
 Let me hear you sing along

D
 What's a party? I've never been
 Well I went to one once, but I couldn't get in
 I bought a lottery ticket, but I didn't win

So I bought two more and I lost again

G
 My phone's plugged in but it isn't chargin'
 I wake up in the morning lookin' like a Martian
 A
 I'm crying on the daily, you could call me Carson
 Could you please shut the door if you're gonna barge in

D
 My shoes are too small and can't fit my foot in
 Went back to the mall and I stepped in some puddin'
 I tried to return them, they said that I couldn't
 Here are some things that upset me that shouldn't

G
 My coffee's too bitter, got stains on my shirt
 I popped my balloon, and my dog is a jerk
 A
 I stepped in some gum then stepped in some poop
 I feel like a hamster, I'm stuck in a loop

D
 Little things make me wanna cry sometimes
 G
 But that's just life
 A
 It'll be alright

D
 If you're really sad
 Everything just turns out wrong

G
 If you're really sad
 A
 Let me hear you sing this song

D
 If you're really sad
 Everything just turns out wrong

G
 If you're really sad
 A
 Let me hear you sing along

D
 If you're really sad
 Everything just turns out wrong

G
 If you're really sad
 A
 Let me hear you sing this song

D
 If you're really sad
 Everything just turns out wrong

G
 If you're really sad
 A
 Let me hear you sing along

D
 Thank you for listening, glad you could all hear this
 But the song is over now, cause I'm all out of Alright this had to end in a bad note didn't it?!
