Don't leave
    Em                       Dadd9
Stay a little longer for me please
          Am                            G
'Cause our love, it takes me back to seventeen, so good
        Em                         Dadd9
She slipped her number right inside my jeans, oh no
Am                      G
Baby don't you be my enemy
            Em                   Dadd9
No regrets, just the best, living the dream
              A                       G
She's so hot, she's like two thousand degrees
          Em                        Dadd9           A
She's so sharp like a knife, she made me bleed, oh no

            G                       Em
But maybe I can be your sunshine
        Dadd9                          Am
Just forget 'bout yesterday, just forget about the rain
        G                            Em
Cause I'm drowning in the sunlight
        Dadd9                               A
So baby please don't make it rain cause I need you
                     G
More today than I thought I would
    Em                         Dadd9
Rolling stones breaking all the firewood
    A                   G
Two thousand degrees inside by best friend's room
    Em                       Dadd9
Nobody will treat you like the way I do, yeah
