

Secondhand Serenade - Pretend

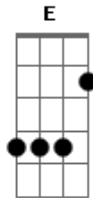

tom:

Intro: A Gbm A A E

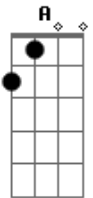

It seems all of these words
 Couldn't be further
 From the truth how did I get here?
 What did I do?
 Your eyes telling me lies
 And making me find myself
 While you have your agenda
 A life to persue
 So please let me be free from you
 And please let me be free
 I can face the truth
 (E E E)
 I'm blind to all of your colors
 That used to be rainbow then

My eyes where did the go to?
 Why disappear?
 It's hard to be all alone
 I never got through your disguise
 I guess I'll just go
 And face all my fear
 So please let me be free from you
 And please let me be free
 I can face the truth
 Put down your world
 Just for one night pick me again
 (E E)
 So please let me be free from you
 And please let me be free
 I can face the truth
