Tom: Eb

I just wanna know, got me on these potions babe
 Love the words you say, you make me wait for it
 When you pull me in I don't want to look away
 Got me in your gaze, my eyes they fall for it

 You're all I need between my sheets
 Just you and me, don't ever slow down
 Your hands should be all over me
 Your lips, your teeth, don't ever stop now

 Out of breath, out of mind
 Addicted to your light
 These potions, these potions
 Out of breath, out of mind

 Addicted to your light
 These potions, these potions

 With a lack of touch, days are gray without you babe
 Tell me anything, my lips they fall for it
 Glass is full and I'm sipping on the words you say
 You've got me drunk on these potions everyday

 You're all I need between my sheets
 Just you and me, don't ever slow down
 Your hands should be all over me

Your lips, your teeth, don't ever stop now

Out of breath, out of mind
 Addicted to your light
 These potions, these potions
 Out of breath, out of mind

 Addicted to your light
 These potions, these potions

 Breathing in these potions
 I'm addicted to your light
 No more second guessing
 I'm addicted to your light

 Out of breath, out of mind

 Addicted to your light
 These potions, these potions
 Out of breath, out of mind

 Addicted to your light
 These potions, these potions

 Addicted to your light
 These potions, these potions

 You're all I need between my sheets
 Just you and me, these potions
 Your hands should be all over me
 Your lips, your teeth, don't ever stop now
 These potions, these potions
 These potions, these potions
