

Seether - Walk Away From The Sun

Tom: D

Walk away from the sun, come slowly undone
 I can see in your eyes I've already won
 I could bleed for a smile, I could cry for some fun
 Walk away from the sun, and tell everyone

{riff} F G F D There's so much left in the air
 {riff} F G F D So much to tell from a stare
 {riff} F G F D There's so much left to defend {riff} F G F D But I'm no fun

So turn away from the ones who hurt everyone
 I can tell by your smile you're coming undone
 I could bleed for a smile; could die for a gun
 Walk away from the sun and kill everyone

{riff} F G F D So tiny dancer beware
 {riff} F G F D We're medicated and scared
 {riff} F G F D This smile is so hard to wear
 {riff} F G F D But I've no gun

So turn away from the ones who hurt everyone
 I can tell by your smile you're coming undone
 I could bleed for a smile; could die for a gun

Walk away from the sun and kill everyone

And you're fading with every day
 (you could've been the next one, should've been enough for me)
 You're fading with every day
 (you could've been the next one, should've been enough for me)
 You're fading with every day
 (you could've been the next one, should've been enough for me)
 And you're fading with every day... whoa
