Tom: D
Intro: Gbm Dbm D

Gbm Dbm D
Different inflection when you say my name, kiss me, but your kiss don't taste the same.

Dbm D
Is it real or am I going out of my mind?
Gbm Dbm D
Curious 'bout the company that you keep,
'cause I hear you talking 'bout her in your sleep,
and now you've got me talking 'bout her in mine.

Gbm Dbm D
Ooh, and I bet she has it all, bet she's beautiful like you, like you.

Gbm Dbm
And I bet she's got that touch, makes you fall in love like you, like you.

Gbm Dbm D
I can taste her lipstick and see her laying across your
chest,
I can feel the distance every time you remember her fingertips.

Gbm
Maybe I should be more like her, maybe I should be more like her.

Dbm D
I can taste her lipstick, it's like I'm kissing her, too.

Gbm Dbm D
Ay, she's perfect.

Gbm Dbm D
Ay, she's perfect.

Gbm Dbm D
How does she touch you? Can I try it, too?

Gbm
I know you're twisted, but baby, I'm twisted, too.

Dbm D
I wanna know if she can make a man lose his mind.

Gbm Dbm
With the smell of her perfume, I could love her, too, like you, like you.

Gbm Dbm D
And I can almost hear her laugh, curving on her back for you,
for you.

Gbm Dbm D
I can taste her lipstick and see her laying across your
chest,
I can feel the distance every time you remember her fingertips.

Gbm Dbm D

her.

Gbm
I can see her body rushing into you, crushing on your skin,
Burning within, burning so deep, deep on your skin, skin next to me.

Gbm Dbm
She's crushing on your skin, settling in,
Burning so deep, deep on your skin, skin while you're sleeping.
