

Selena Gomez - Wild Love

tom:

Am

Fire, it could go and burn you out
 A broken hourglass, scattered pieces on the ground
 Desire, It could leave you reachin' out
 With nothing left, just ashes to be found
 I watch you walk away, and that's okay
 'Cause love is never promised anyway, anyway

C G Am

It's just wild love

Can make you act like a maniac

Wild love

You run away, then you're running back

It's so strange, can't explain

This selfish game

It's just wild love

We were flyin', faster than the speed of sound

I went left, you went right, but the heavy winds brought us down

Do you ever wonder how chaos, it works out

In the sea of confusion, happiness and doubt

I watch you walking out, and that's okay

I guess as long as you got a heart, you got something to break, to break

It's just wild love

Can make you act like a maniac

Wild love

You run away, then you're running back

It's so strange, can't explain

This selfish game

It's just wild love

Ain't it funny, how the world when there's a thrill

So we jump on again

It may be sweet, but it can kill, and we don't care

We'll take our chance again

Till the bitter end, on and on again

That's how the story goes, hm hm hm

It's just wild love

Can make you act like a maniac

Wild love

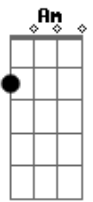

You run away, then you're running back

It's so strange, can't explain

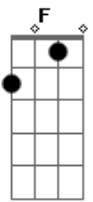

This selfish game

It's just wild love
